“ Ruby was a joy to work with. Wish all the operators I had to work with had been half as good. Want ever forget her smile and joy she had each and every day. She made really good ham and biscuits every Christmas and countless cakes. Elaine, Abby, and all of you had a super mom that I was glad to call friend. Deepest sympathy to all.

“ Aunt Ruby was so giving. She had a wonderful talent of making everything that she cooked taste delicious. One of her specialities was yeast rolls. She cooked dozens of rolls for people, with ease. For years, I asked her to make several dozens for Thanksgiving. No matter how many dozens I asked her to bake, she always said “yes.” I often spent Thanksgiving with a close friend and her family in Atlanta. My friend looked forward to me bringing the rolls and increased the number she wanted me to bring every year! I thank God for her caring spirit, kindness and love.

Hold fast to the wonderful memories. What a blessing to live 91 years!

Love,
Aurelia
