“ To a beautiful man of God that i got to know as my Uncle A.D.when he came home to visit my best friend and the woman that is responsible for whom I'm today his mother, Grand mama Dosha, other than God I owe her all that I have accomplished in life and tried to model myself after a man we called Uncle A.D. that moved away from family and followed his dream, just as I did years ago and was blessed to travel the country, THANKS UNC. for giving me the courage to follow my dream, I will never forget the times we shared at our house celebrating family events and i will never forget you would always sit on the patio because you said i kept the house too cold. And i would always turn the air off, but you would say nephew I'm ok. I could go on and on. I love you and hopefully we can get the family back together like we talked about !!!

Your nephew

Edgar Earl Beard

I love you always and forever.

“ Memories of My Uncle A.D. Beard

Uncle A.D. Beard was my mom's (Elnora Ruth Beard Mitchell) youngest brother. He loved her, he loved her children and we loved him too.

My heart is Heavy and Sad right now.

- I remember spending the summer of 1974 in New Brunswick, NJ eating donuts and hot dogs @ Uncle A.D.'s while he worked*
- I remember Uncle A.D. teaching me how to fish with a rod and reel fishing pole where we were only used to fishing with a cane pole with Grandma Dasha.*
- I remember fishing with Uncle A.D. off the Princeton Bridge in Princeton, NJ and catching my first nice size catfish*
- I remember what a joy it was when Uncle A.D. moved back home to Tennessee after his retirement from GMC*
- I remember eating breakfast and buffets with him @ Rachael's Diner. He loved the Tuesday All-You-Can Eat Chicken*
- I remember how we talked about God, changing our life after receiving forgiveness and how it involved letting go of the past and embracing a new identity in Christ, where old sinful ways are replaced with a transformed life.*

Uncle A.D. would say, "the bible encourages forgetting former mistakes, as God allows us to live for his purpose rather than past habits. God is a forgiving God."

Rest in peace to an uncle who made every family gathering brighter.

Much Love, From All of Us
