To the family of Mrs. Alice, a neighbor and likee another mother. I bn nothing Mrs. Alice almost all my life. I always tried to go a talk to Mrs. Alice. I would go up to Mrs. Alice house and we would just laugh and talk for hrs. I loved Mrs. Alice like a mother. We stayed at her house like we did our own. She would feef us like she would feed her own kids. Mrs. Alice wasn't just like a mother, but she was family. She's my nephew grandmother. Plus Mrs. Alice and my mother both name Alice both birthday n July, and but neighbor for almost 50 r most yrs. So the Beard's Family has deep love for the Whisnant-Johnson-Minor Family bcuz we r family. Love

“ My Condolences to the Family,

I've known Alice my whole life. I was her cousin and neighbor to her Mother Emma. My Great-Grandfather Curtis Jones was her Uncle.

My memories of her are fond memories. Mainly because I looked at her and saw the face of family in her. She was a stern woman who always was sweet to me as a child. I know she is rejoicing in Heaven.

All my love and sincerest condolences to the family.

Sincerely,

Terron M. Jones
