

Mr. Andrew Fowler

November 2, 1949 - January 10, 2026

Andrew Fowler, lovingly known as Andy, was born on November 2, 1949, to the late Ethel Ingram Fowler and Fred Fowler. He peacefully transitioned on Saturday, January 10, 2026, in Jackson, Tennessee.

He was the 6th child of 14 children and lived a life shaped by adventure, resilience, and family. He was a father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend to many. His life touched more people than can be counted.

He graduated from West High School in Jackson, Tennessee. In his early adulthood, he moved to Jackson, Michigan, where he began working at DieCast. In 1975, he relocated to Los Angeles, California, where he built a long and dedicated career with the Metro Transit Authority, serving for over 23 years.

Throughout his life, Andrew was known for his humor, strong opinions, unmistakable presence, determination, and deep love of music. Those who knew him best will remember how he showed up for others in his own way, and the lessons, spoken and unspoken, that he left behind. Above all, he was a proud father of nine children, each of whom held a meaningful place in his life. His legacy lives on through the generations he helped shape.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ethel Ingram Fowler and Fred Fowler; his brothers, Fred Fowler Jr., MacArthur Fowler, and Jimmy Fowler; his sisters, Eva Mae Wilkins, Valerie Carr, and Jacqueline Carr. Sons-in-Law; Jeffrey Gifford, Anthony Humes Sr, and Daughter-in-Law; Shanta Dawkins.

He is survived by his wife, Valarie Lewis-Fowler and his children: Bryan L. Fowler (Jeffrey), Chala Fowler-Lott, Ondria (Teddy) Boyd, OnDreana (Anthony) Campbell-Humes, Andrew Dawkins (Shanta), Trivia (Stephen) Calhoun, Tiona (Christopher) Chapman, Ashley (Andrew) Pitts, and Christian Fowler. All raised by loving, strong women. He also leaves behind sixteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren. He is survived by his sisters: Linda Fowler Cole, Shelia Lancaster, Alice Golden, and Barbara (Rudy) Carr; and his brothers: Billy (Yonnie) Fowler, Joey (Odessa) Ingram, and Levon (Bea) Fowler; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
