

Ms. Annette J. Clark

March 31, 1965 - February 20, 2016

Annette Clark was born on March 31, 1965 to Carlene Long Clark and Roy Fuller, Jr. She was also raised by Willie Clark, Sr.

She departed this life on February 20, 2016. She grew up in Jackson-Madison County and attended Jackson-Madison County Schools. Annette was a member of the Tabernacle of David The House of Israel.

She was a 1983 graduate of Jackson-Central Merry High School. She went on to attend the University of Memphis.

In the words of her aunt Tarstein, "Annette was really gifted in organizing and putting details together. She had a talent for arranging furniture and creating new living spaces. She could have worked as a professional organizer on the popular tv show HGTV. She could throw down in the kitchen, creating some awesome meals."

Annette was preceded in death by her step-father, Willie Clark, Sr., her maternal grandparents; James and Beulah Mae Long and her paternal grandparents; Roy Jackson Fuller Sr. and Jeanette Fuller.

Annette leaves to cherish her memory: a daughter, Chelsea Smith; a son, Devin Clark; her parents, Carlene Clark and Roy Fuller, Jr. (Esther Lee); four grandchildren: Faith, Rylan, Nevaeh & Makenlee; three sisters: Shelia Clark (Courtney), Karen and Keisha Fuller; a brother, Willie Clark, Jr., and two nephews: Brian Gray Jr. and Samuel (Ta-ta) Henning all of Jackson, Tennessee. Best friend: Mildred Greer; special friends: Fred Douglas, Derrick Rogers, Reginald Ivory and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
