

Mrs. Annie Bell Fields

February 1, 1923 - November 27, 2011

Mrs. Annie Bell Johnson Fields was born in Madison County on February 1, 1923 to the late Henry and Lottie Johnson. Annie was preceded in death by two sisters; Eleanor Johnson and Esther Latimer and two brothers; Joe Johnson and Willie T. Johnson.

She was married to Tump Fields until his death in 2002.

Annie became a child of Jesus Christ at nine years old. She was educated in the Madison County Public school system. Annie was a member of Walnut Grove Baptist Church until she joined New St. Luke M.B. Church. She was an active and faithful member of the Mother Board, where she served as the Vice President, attending meetings regularly, Baptist Training Union (BTU), Missionary Ministry, and one of the "Original Ryders" (a name given by Rev. Blalock to a few of the mothers that travel with him during Revival Time, one was always "PACKING"). She loved her church family and especially her Pastor, Rev. Blalock.

Annie leaves to cherish her memories: her children; Artist Dean Fields, Thomas Larry Fields, Stanley H. Fields, Edna Fields, Beverley Fields, all of Jackson, TN, Evelyn Norton (Alvin) of Antioch, TN, Victor Rogers and Artis Rogers, also of Jackson, TN, 11 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and one brother in law, Granerson (Betty) Fields, a host of nieces and nephews.

“ I loved Mother Fields like a mother, because she was so loving and kind. When I would say to her "I love you". She would say "And I love you and your family". I will miss my anniversary and birthday cards that she never forgot to send. I will always love her, and will never forget her. Sue Douglass
