

Ms. Annie Ruth Williamson

October 22, 1944 - December 4, 2014

Annie Ruth Williamson was born on October 22, 1944 in Jackson, Tennessee. She was the eldest living child born to Sylvar Rene Marshall Williamson and the late Clenzie Williamson. She died on Thursday, December 4, 2014.

She attended the public schools of Jackson-Madison County, she graduated from Lane College with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Elementary Education in 1970.

She accepted Christ as her personal Savior at an early age and joined the Macedonia Baptist Church. She served as an usher and she also a member of the choir. She attended and participated in the Saturday morning meetings of the Obion River District Association and the Baptist Training Union Congress.

Her greatest joy was praising and thanking God for his many blessings, reading the word of God, singing songs of Zion, listening to the Word and gospel music.

To know Annie was to love her and for her to know you was to be loved. She devoted her life to serving God and others. Whether it was listening ear, words of encouragement or preparing one of those delicious home cooked meals or desserts. Annie was always ready to give herself to others.

She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter: Angel Collette Williamson, mother: Sylvar Rene Marshall Williamson, sisters: Ruth Ann Williamson, Clara B. Williamson Flowers, Mattie Sue Williamson Roby, Fannie M. Williamson, Corene D. Williamson (Jerome) Maclin, Valerie Y. Williamson and Ella R. Williamson. brother: William David Williamson. A host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ It's hard to believe that its been over a year since my eldest sibling went home to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ! It was difficult getting through the holidays without your witty jokes, sharing recipes, singing,praying, and the love you gave for each and every one of our birthday celebrations! I miss you Annie! With love, Valerie
