“ With a heavy yet broken heart, I would love to send my condolences to the family of Mother Artis Shelton. She was like a second mother to me, Jessie McClinton. I knew her many years, and during that time I never heard her say a negative word about anyone. Everytime I visited her home she had a big warm smile, a bear hug, and kind words to greet me with. There was always something cooking on the stove, and a plate wrapped in aluminum foil for me to carry home as leftovers. We would sit around the dinner table for hours sometimes and talk about life, current events, or scriptures in the Bible. She truly loved her kids, and hopefully they know how much she sacrificed and gave up on her own happiness and dreams to fulfill theirs. She was a wonderful, loyal, kind loving woman whom will be missed immensely, but the world lost a saint while heaven gained an angel. Goodbye Mother Artis, you are in good hands now. The memories of you I will cherish always. God keep and bless you
Jessie McClinton
