Arzella, Zella I call her for many years growing up in Alamo, Tn. She was a true friend to me. I can say she loved the Lord and she had a testimony to share and a praise to share of his goodness and mercy. Rest in peace my friend.

“ It is with a heavy heart to hear of the passing of our beloved church member, Sis. Arzella Warren. I haven't seen her in over a year since she left Memphis to be closer to her family in Alamo, my sadness is like we just fellowshipped a few days ago. She was my biggest cheerleader whenever I led or directed a song in the church. She shared that sometimes she would come to church just to watch me do one or the other. WOW, what great motivation! Since she left Memphis (Life COGIC), her absence has been felt but I'm comforted in knowing that she's resting in a place we all hope to go and see Jesus in peace. Because we, (Life COGIC) loved Sis. Warren so much, we endeavor to love and support her family during this difficult time. Be blessed, Verlean Kelly.

“ How saddened I am to learn of Sis. Arzella Warren's homegoing! She was a long-time member of our church, Life Church of God in Christ, here in Memphis, TN. She was such a nice and friendly lady who volunteered to serve wherever possible. I remember that we sat together at one of our church Christmas Dinners, and we had a long talk and just enjoyed each other. The last time I saw her, she hugged me and slipped a birthday gift into my hand. (She loved to give.) The last time we talked via telephone, she told me that she was getting ready to move to be near her family. Well, I am glad she was blessed to spend time with her family, and I know --like us, they will miss her. However, I know that we may be sad on this side, but there is a great celebration going on in Heaven. She is finally at HOME with the Lord. We will all miss Sis. Warren, but I plan to see her again. My sincere thoughts and prayers are with her family. May the Lord grant them the strength they will need in the days ahead.
