

Mrs. Beatrice Wade Moore

September 1, 1919 - December 30, 2020

Sister Beatrice Wade-Moore, Miss Bee as she was fondly called, was born September 1, 1919, to the union of the late Rev. Alonzo "A.L." Wade and Mrs. Commie Williams-Wade in Gibson County, Fruitland, TN. Beatrice was the third child born to this union. Two brothers preceded her in death.

Mrs. Wade-Moore came to Christ in 1926 under the pastorate of Rev. R.O. Lankford, and united with Lane Chapel C.M.E. Church.

Since her father was a C.M.E. Minister, she spent most of her time going to many of the churches in West TN. She attended the Annual Conference, Union City District, Brownsville District, Dyersburg District, Memphis, TN, Jackson, TN where she dedicated, devoted and faithful. She attended both District and Annual Conferences.

Her parents were sharecroppers, she grew up on a farm, and participated in a lot of farm work. Her parents wanted her to have a good education; they relocated to Humboldt, TN. Miss Bee attended Stigall Elementary School in Humboldt, TN, however she graduated from Rosenwald High School in Trenton, TN in 1940 where she was an excellent student. Miss Bee earned a BA degree in 1944 from Lane College in Jackson, TN graduating with honors. Later she attended Tennessee State University where she received her master's degree in Education and Administration, focusing on a PHD. She walked and drove in rain and snow to do the job she loved the most.

Miss Bee's teaching career was in West Tennessee, Middle Tennessee, and the State of Illinois doing what she was called to do with love, pride, and joy. She retired after forty years of service, from Gibson County School District where she received many honors and certificates of distinction from various counties. She continued to teach basic education to adults after retirement.

There were many lay persons, ministers, Bishops, and friends that helped her along the way. She touched many lives of all ethnicity, who have moved on to become very successful, "doctors, policeman, lawyers, teachers, pastors, and some who served in the United States Military. Her motto was "come to learn and not to play." Wherever she went she was loved and respected by all.

Her adult affiliation included the District, Local Connection, and General Conference. She was a delegate for both District and Annual Conference. On many occasions she was asked several times to be the speaker. The positions she held were President of the Stewardess Board, Treasure of the Stewardess Board, Secretary of the Sunday School, Sunday School teachers, District Assistance, and Lay Leader.

Miss Bee was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, Sun Rise Chapter No.24 of the Jurisdiction of Tennessee. She served as Ruth of the Star. She had a great love for traveling to the Grand Session and met many people who became life-long acquaintances.

In addition to being encouraged by her parents, there were others such as school instructor in North Jackson District of the C.M.E. Church, the late Myrtle Lowery, late Mary B. Barnett, late Gussie Adams, late Juanita Morris, Gorgia wisdom, Minnie Hill, Vivian Hawkins-Robinson, Winnie L. Foster, late Addie Roe, late Neida F. Williams, Pandora Flake, and the late Myrtle House.

Mrs. Beatrice married the late Mr. H.L. Moore, and no children were born to that union. He was a loving husband and father to her only son James Edward Wade. Mr. Moore was a Sergeant in the Army and received a Purple Heart. Mr. Moore preceded her death.

Miss Bee has been a classmate and served with many bishops, presiding elders, pastors, and general officers, who spoke very highly of her. The community, church, and city will remember her for the spirit of love, understanding, and learning that she has shared with others in her life and will truly be missed. The church was her true love.

Mrs. Beatrice Wade-Moore was a strong woman, a devoted wife and mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and friend. She tried to instill a sense of independence, and self-worth to her devoted son James Edward Wade.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her son, James Edward Wade (Joyce) of Daly City, CA. Grandchildren Sonji D. Wade of Antioch, CA, Christian D. Wade of Stockton, CA, Craig L. Snelling Esq. (Anakarita) of Oakland, CA. Great-grandchildren Marquez and William Thompson, and Miko Fox of Antioch, CA., and Christian James Wade of Stockton, CA. Late sisters-in-law Shirley (Eugene) Williams, Marie Moore Jones, brother-in-law Thomas Earl Moore. Former daughter-in-law Annie Loris Wade of Stockton, CA. A host of cousins and friends in Georgia, Michigan, Illinois, and Hawaii.

Miss Bea was such a true blessing in my life. After my parents passed, she would often remind me to "behave", just like a mother would. She had a humorous way of keeping her church children in line. We miss her more than words can say. Rest well, Miss Bea!

“ Words are not adequate enough to share what Miss Bee meant to me personally and the Stewardess Ministry of the CME Church. Her love and dedication to the ministry is a model for all of us. Miss Bee along with myself and Sis. Pandora Flake traveled many miles together attending District, Annual Conferences and Connectional Meetings. The only thing we were unable to get her to do was to fly, but if we were going to a meeting by car, van or bus you could count on her to go. All you had to do was let her know when you were leaving and how much she had to pay. She took meticulous notes at meetings and her memory of past events was remarkable. Take your rest my sister and enjoy your reunion in heaven.

“ Miss Beatrice and I often rode to school in Gibson in the late sixty. She was a delight to be around. It was my pleasure to call her my friend and she always remembered me when we would see each other. I would often ask Miss Johnson about her at retired teacher. I am so sorry for you loss.

“ My heart is heavy right now. I am going to really miss Mrs. Beatrice Moore. She attended the Humboldt Senior Center daily until her health failed. She participated in everything I initiated at the Center with a willing heart. She often played bingo and loved winning the gifts. My fondest memories will always be:(1) She would be waiting on me to come through the doors of the Fellowship Hall. As soon as I would entered the doors, she would call me to her side. Then she would say, "Mickey, would you go and get me some cookies and a cup of coffee." I already knew that she had been given cookies and coffee but I wouldn't say a word. I just went and got them as if they were for me. I would sneak them to her and just walk away. I saw others looking, but I just went my merry way doing what I normally do when I would arrive at the Center. Lol

(2) On her 101 birthday, Daddy and I took her flowers and song to her out in the foyer. It was this lady that requested us to sing a song for her mother that was also in the foyer with Mrs. Beatrice and several other residents. They were all singing the songs with us. I remembered the first verse of the song, but had forgotten the second verse of the song. Daddy was looking up the words for me but was taking too long. You could hear Mrs. Beatrice singing. When I started on the second verse of the song, I had to look in Mrs. Beatrice's mouth to see what the next words of the song were. Mrs. Beatrice knew the entire song without words. It was an old hymnal. When we finished that song, everyone in the foyer clapped and smiled. That was a sight to behold. I told Mrs. Beatrice that I had to look at her mouth to see what the next words were. She laughed and laughed. Then she said, "Now Mickey, you forgot the words to the song! have been singing that song every since I was a teenager." Daddy and I talked about that on the way home. She was 101 years of age and knew ever words of that song. Her mind was still sharp. Those are the two memories I will forever cherish the rest of my life. I will miss seeing and hearing her sing whenever the HSC Choir returns to the Nursing Home. Take you sweet rest Mrs. Beatrice Moore. You have fought a good fight, now the victory is yours!

“ Sad to hear that one of my favorite high school teachers has passed. She taught at Gibson High School, Gibson TN from the late 60-s until the late 70's, teaching history and social studies. Always very nice to this 1971 graduate, and until her health began to fail, she regularly came to the annual GHS reunions. Thanks for being my teacher Mrs. Moore!
