“ Have been a fan and friend, as well as a cousin, so Ben have always told me. I worked with him at Century Electric in the early 1970's. Ben was the same Everytime I ran into him. He was a good man. He loved God, his church family, his wife and his children. We loved him, but God had a better place for him. Take your rest my friend, I will see you again on that other shore.
