

Mrs. Bessie Mae Stevenson

January 30, 1956 - August 4, 2013

Bessie Mae Stevenson was born to the late Clemon and Mildred Brown on January 30, 1956. She attended Merry High School, where she met no stranger. After the passing of her mother she helped raise her three younger sisters.

She worked at Kentucky Fried Chicken, for over twenty-five years. She worked long hard hours to support her family. Bessie impacted many lives with the life that she lived. So many times she opened up her home and became a mother to the motherless. Her doors were closed to no one.

Bessie was loved for her laughter and warm hearted spirit. She was a believer of the Lord Jesus Christ. She was a member of the Unity Temple Church Of God In Christ where she ushered for many years.

She is survived by her children: Charles (Pam) Brown, Dana (Micheal) Robinson, Louis (Connie) Artis, Lamorris Steven, Montellus Harris. Sisters: Patricia (Jerry) Moore, Clara (George) Williamson, Clementine Butler, Linda (Eric) Price. Ten grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
