

Ms. Betty Jane Halton Mitchell

August 1, 1942 - June 24, 2015

Betty Jane (Halton) Mitchell was born on August 1, 1942 in Henderson County, TN to her parents, the late Lonnie B and Mary A. Halton.

After many years of enduring struggles with her health, Betty Jane Mitchell, departed this this life on Earth on June 24, 2015, leaving behind a host of family and friends to cherish her legacy.

Betty was a retired Community Service Driver for Cobb County Community Service Center in Marietta, GA and worked for a short time with Southwest Human Resource also as a driver.

Betty is preceded in death by her parents, Lonnie B. and Mary Halton; her daughter, Maria N. Mitchell; her sister, Lonnie M. Donnelson; her brothers, Louis C., Willie Joseph, Harron A., Richard, and Andrew Halton; her nephew, Phillip C. Halton.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her daughters, Ms. Susan C. Montague, and Ms. Lolitta M. Mitchell; son: Tommy Joe (Erica) Mitchell Jr.; two sisters: Edna Jackson and Ruby (Martin) Crockett ; four granddaughters, Whitney J. Mitchell, Kala N. Mitchell, Markitta S. Stafford and Courtney A. Ingram; two great grandchildren, Joslyn N. Ingram and Breyon M. Ingram. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

My Granny

She wasn't like the other Grannies
Spoiling kids with sweets,
The minute you stepped out of line,
That shoes came off her feet!
She never was a pushover,
The final word was hers,
She had her own opinions,
She made her feelings known,
But she was someone I'd depended on,
Whenever things turned bad,
And someone I could talk to if I was feeling sad!
Someone who always loved me,
No matter what I'd done,
I'm gonna miss my granny,
More and more each day.
I think the world's a sadder place,
Since she passed away.

Cemetery Details

Lexington City Cemetery

Lexington, TN

Previous Events

Visitation

JUN 27. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

Keys Chapel United Methodist Church
268 Reeves Street
Lexington, TN 38351

Service

JUN 27. 11:00 AM (CT)

Keys Chapel United Methodist Church
268 Reeves Street
Lexington, TN 38351

Tribute Wall

“ Ms. Betty Jane Halton Mitchell

January 28, 2023 at 12:37 PM

“ *Your love will always be a light for your family.
Praying for you today and the days ahead.*

Sonya McCullough - June 25, 2015 at 08:23 AM

“ Prayers for Susan Mitchell Montague and family

lindaelam - June 24, 2015 at 10:25 AM