

Ms. Carolyn Cee Miller

November 23, 1966 - August 5, 2019

On November 23, Thanksgiving Day in 1966, the world welcomed the birth of Carolyn Cee Miller. A baby girl that was so different from all others. This child was born with vision, leadership charisma and a warm heart.

Born in Cleveland, OH, to the late Dock Miller Jr. and Mrs. Nadine Miller. Carolyn graduated from Milan High School Class of 1985 where she participated in various activities that included marching with the band and being a member of the Lady Knights of the Roundtable better known as K.O.R.T., which allowed her to utilize her gift in music and the opportunity to serve others.

Known for her gentleness and warm spirit, she became known as “Soft Touch”. Upon graduation from high school, she attended Tennessee State University, where she was a music major and member of the great Aristocrat of Bands. Carolyn always had a great big smile, a hug, and story to tell of her adventures as she pursued her vision from a young girl playing the piano and singing in church.

Following the footsteps of her entrepreneurial parents, she ventured into business at the early age of selling candy at her mom’s beauty salon and owner of her own lemonade stand. Carolyn was successful with creating her own company “Soft Touch” Productions which open the doors to many young people who are successful business people in the music and productions industry.

She was preceded in death by her father: Henry Doc Miller Jr., grandparents: Nathaniel and Alma Lou Armour, Henry Doc and Lillie R. Miller; aunts: Mildred Armour and Eldora Robinson, uncle: James Armour

Carolyn leaves to cherish her memory: her two precious fur babies; Millions (cat) and Sweet Daddy (dog), a loving mother: Nadine Miller; brother: Shaun Beacum (Felicia) of Atlanta, GA; nephews: Jeffery Darnell Miller Jr. and Avery Lamar Miller of East Chicago, IL, one niece; Shahdai Beacum and one great nephew: Brycson Miller; aunts: Vivian Crawford, Mary Felton, Barbra Miller of Gary, IN and Mary Mance of Columbia, SC; uncle: Tom Miller of Gary, IN and host cousins and friends.

“ I remember Carolyn as a childhood friend, church members and singing together in the youth choir and AL Campbell choir ... she was always sweet. My mother and my mother's sister grew with her mother and went to school together as well. I'll see you some glad morning in Glory.

“ Carolyn A.K.A Soft Touch. The laughter and joy that you brought to so many of us in Band room, on the field and in the stands during games in the Hole and away games. We will miss you as the AOB family and we are at a loss that you have gone so soon. R.I.P. Love your AOB sister, Letitia Shelton (Flute Phi).

“ I saw the post on FB about my dear friend Carolyn Cee Miller passing. When I read the post I dropped my phone in disbelief. My dear dear friend what do I say . . . I thought about you just last month and didn't take the time to call you 😭 My heart hurts and smiles at the same time. You are now at peace and reunited with your brother. I met you at TSU in the Aristocrat of Bands. We knew you as “Soft Touch”. Yep we rode Bus 2 on all the band trips. Nothing but laughs . . . all the time. You got me started in the entertainment biz and brought me on board with your company, Soft Touch Productions in the late 80s. Attached is the article on us from The Nashville Business Journal from 1991. Your energy always preceded you. We disagreed on lots of things but we always ended up laughing. Prayers out to Mom Nadine and Angela Grayson. Rest in Paradise Carolyn. Thanks for all the smiles and for loving on me, Michelle and the kids. . . until we meet again. ❤️🙏😭 #AOB4Life #SoftTouchProductions

“ Where do I begin; well let’s say you were such a great daughter, sister, cousin, aunt, friend. Oh my goodness how you and we use to cut up had everyone in laughter all the time. That caring soul and heart you had can not be replaced. The last we saw and also talked by phone it’s like we have never missed a beat. Carolyn you are no longer worried, in pain or suffering— now go and REST! We are going to miss and will always love you and there is NO way that we will forget you cause you touch soo many people. Love you Carolyn Jean (Soft Touch - Lady Knight Of Round Table -LKORT), Mable, Cee Miller.

Nadine and family we love you and keeping you in prayer, she truly is going to be missed by us all.
