

Mrs. Christine L. Wortham

November 19, 1926 - November 14, 2022

Sis. Christine Louvinia Wortham was born in Denmark, Tennessee on November 19, 1926, to the late Henry Shaw and LuFrances Ellington. Sis. Christine passed away Monday, November 14, 2022, at her home, just five days short of her 96th birthday.

She attended Denmark schools until she married Pink Earl Wortham. From this union were born 2 children. She was a hard-working woman who loved to dress. She and her husband would match from the top of their heads down to their feet.

Sis. Christine was a devoted and dedicated member of The Tabernacle of David the House of Israel since 1947. Just a few years later, she would become a loyal missionary minister, and did so until her time of death.

She was preceded in death by her husband: Bro. Pink Earl Wortham; son: Earl Glover Wortham; daughter-in-law: Georgia Wortham; son-in-law: Thomas Edward Stewart Sr.; one brother: Oscar Shaw, and one sister: Mary Magdalene Williamson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter Louvina "Bernetta" Stewart, two granddaughters: Sharon Taylor (Andrew) and Melissa Stewart; one grandson: Malcolm Wortham; six great grandchildren: A'ndrianna Freeman

(Carl), Curtis Taylor, Kyara Wortham, Deanna Wortham, Pynk Ueal, and Zachariah Wortham; five great great-grandchildren; a brother Isaac Shaw (Odessa), and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
