“ My Uncle CV taught me invaluable lessons about life. I cherish all the memorable times I spent with him during my family visits. He never forgot a birthday or graduation and was always proud of my accomplishments. My uncle demonstrated the importance of being yourself unapologetically. It's okay to be different. Be the version of yourself. Apart of who I am today is owed to my uncle CV. He will be deeply missed. Rest in Peace, your nephew
Anthony Williamson

“ My brother was a very loving, caring and generous person. I have known him all my life. Anytime I needed a friend to talk to (day or night) he was there with a listen and compassionate ear. During this difficult and sorrowful period of time, I can truly say that other than my father, he was indeed my greatest hero. On behalf of all my brothers and sisters, we are truly going to miss you and we all joyful look forward to seeing you again when we cross over to the other side. Your Loving Brother Silas (Sie)
