

Mrs. Classie Mae Croom Johnson

September 2, 1930 - April 24, 2023

Classie Mae Croom Johnson was born on September 2, 1930, in Pinson, Tennessee to the late Hulon Allen and Effie Mae Kerrent Croom. She entered into the arms of her Savior on the afternoon of April 24, 2023.

She met the “Love of her Life” Frank D. Johnson and they entered into Holy Matrimony on March 29, 1949, in Corinth, Mississippi. Together they started their married life in Pinson, Tennessee and later moved to Henderson, Tennessee to raise their family.

She worked for Chester Manufacturing for several years before retiring to be a homemaker. She worked hard to help provide for her family. She was truly a “virtuous woman” worth far more than Rubies; worked vigorously. her children arise and called her blessed. A Woman of grace and dignity she exemplified all these qualities and more.

She enjoyed having her grandchildren visit and always wanted a house full of children around. Her children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews were the “Light of her Life”. She was a member of the Henderson congregation of Jehovah’s Witnesses.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband: Frank D. Johnson on October 28, 2022; her sister: Evelyn Doris "Babe" Collier, daughter: Frankie L. Johnson, sons: Gene D. Johnson, Sigle W. Johnson and Kenneth D. Johnson, and a great-grandson: Narrick Tharpe.

She leaves to celebrate her life, legacy and cherish precious memories her sons: Jackie (Velma) Johnson, Danny Johnson, Freddie (Edna) Johnson and Perry (Kelia) Johnson; daughters: Cassandra (Lee) Boyle, Donna (James) Welch, Kim (Billy) Phelps and Marcia (James) Taylor; twenty-seven grandchildren, thirty-three great grandchildren and thirteen great-great grandchildren.
