“ Momma,

It's been almost eight months since your passing. In July, You would have been 72 years old. I sure do miss you mama, your words of wisdom, and funny humor. Rest in in peace and keep watching over me and my children. I love you momma.

“ I will miss Clem. She was a very dear friend to me when I moved to Jackson. We met at Lincoln Elementary School in 1979. We had many, many many laughs together. We were separated in our work in approximately 1982 and rejoined in our work in 1992 at Whitehall Elementary. Clem retired and we lost contact again. I was saddened to hear of her passing. Rest in peace Clem until we meet again to be separated no more.

Hey Clim, I so often wonder what you are doing up there in Heaven..... are the streets paved in gold, is everyday Sunday, do you and Jesus make conversations, are you happy to be gone from this sin sick world, do you see ma and daddy, what are they doing? I have so many questions. I love you, I miss you and I dream about you every night almost. Keep looking down on us!!!

Love,

Fairy
