

Deacon Lue Wilbert Seats

February 19, 1923 - August 8, 2019

For I am persuaded that neither death nor life nor angels nor principalities nor powers nor things present nor things to come nor height nor depth nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 8:38,39.

Thursday evening, August 8, 2019 at 5:05 p.m., a great soul, Mr. Lue Wilbert Seats, age 96; went home to be with the Lord. He was comfortable, peaceful, well taken care of and merely went to sleep at the Lexington Manor Nursing Home in Lexington, Tennessee.

In the fleeting of seconds his name was called, and his soul rose and made its journey Home to its Heavenly Maker.

Lue Wilbert Seats was the second child born to the union of Mr. Ernest Seats and Mrs. Rebecca Douglas Seats of Carroll County Tennessee on February 19, 1923. Growing up, the family moved back to Henderson County and it was instilled into the offspring of Ernest and Rebecca, the importance of land ownership during an era in the rural South when the belief was that African Americans could only be share-croppers. He was educated in the Henderson County School System.

He was a firm, nurturing father and demonstrated for his family, perseverance, faith, strength and a strong sense of dignity and pride. He had been a farmer of large acreages and nurtured and groomed farm animals in his earlier years. He also delighted in growing cotton, vegetables and flowers and was also able to influence, transform and transport generations of students touching countless lives as a Henderson County, Tennessee School bus driver for almost 50 years.

He made certain that black children in particular had an opportunity to receive a high school education by purchasing his own school buses and supplying the gasoline. His objective was that a high school education would be accessible to all.

He believed deeply, 2 Timothy 4:7-8, I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day-and not only to me, but also to all who love his appearing.

Preceding him in death was his beloved wife Elizabeth White Seats, the mother of his four children; his youngest daughter Omega, who slipped away as an infant, and his second daughter, Juanita Inez Seats Chunn; his second wife, Mae Nell Mylan Seats, his Father and Mother Ernest and Rebecca Seats; Siblings, Ernest, Jr., Floyd, Leon, Vertha Mae, Gracie and Irene, and his grandson, James Victor Smith.

In his later years he developed a fondness for dogs and two became his cherished friend and companion, his last pet, the beloved "Jack" whose departure came all too soon.

He will be missed much by the family, but our connection to him transcends physical form and we are assured that we will meet him again. Today, we victoriously proclaim that because of Calvary, the price has already been paid and Lue Wilbert Seats will receive his will receive his crown.

“ Don't think of me as gone away
My journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is but one
Just think of me as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think of how I must be wishing
That you could know today
How nothing but your sadness
Can really go away
And think of me as living
In the hearts of those I touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And I know I was loved so much.....by Ellen Brenneman

My Grandfather was a humble man, selfless and kind, caring, respectful, and strong. These are just a few words that come to mind. It is impossible to summarize how great of a person he was in words. He never liked to be the center of attention. In life and now in death, he wouldn't want us to focus on him. He wouldn't want us to focus on the sadness of his death, but instead focus on the happiness and the good memories. He will always be remembered by those of us who knew him and loved him. Grandfather, now you and Grandmother can rest in Heavenly peace together. I will miss you. Until we meet again.

“ Goodbye To My Dad
Goodbye Dad, I have to say
I'll remember the good times and try not to be sad
But saying goodbye still hurts so bad
I miss you more than I can express
My love for you will never grow less
I keep trying to imagine how I will go on
I realize tomorrow is another dawn
I know you're in heaven above
Looking down on us with all your love
Only to whisper in our ear
Remember that I'll never stopped loving you dear
I'll always remember the good times we had
Remember the man, my wonderful Dad
I'll remember you each and every day
And if I need to talk to you, I'll just sit down and pray
One day we'll be together again
To talk about all the places we been
Until the time I'll always treasure
Having you for a Dad was such a great pleasure.

Dad, rest in Heavenly Peace with Mom!! Love you much!
