

Mrs. Dorothy Sue Peoples

July 10, 1943 - October 6, 2020

Dorothy Sue Peoples was born July 10, 1943 in Milan, TN. She was the fourth child born of thirteen to the late Shellie and Lucille Smith. She departed this life on October 6, 2020 after a long battle of cancer.

Dorothy accepted Jesus at an early age at Moore's Chapel Baptist Church. She was a faithful member and servant of the choir and served in many capacities until her sickness. She was joined in matrimony to the late Wille C . Peoples. Not only was she a virtuous woman, she enjoyed praying, singing, fashion, beauty (red lipstick), and most all spending time with her love ones. Attending church and her relationship with God was her first priority!

Those who preceded her in death; one daughter: Willie Sue Peoples, one son: Marko Peoples, one grandson: Denzel Peoples, four brothers: Robert, William, Arnold, and David Smith, three sisters: Shirley Taylor, Jennie Woolfolk, Jessie Coleman, and Eva Mae Stewart

Special memories are left to be cherished by; five children: Renae Peoples, Kevin Peoples, Martha Peoples, Monica Peoples, and Alisa (Bobby) Lowe, twelve grandchildren: Wykeesha Sims, Natasha and Rayshawn Peoples, Cavon Godwin, Telisa Macon, Jacob Hudson, Terrianna Macon, Jayla Hudson, Asia Dale, Tamarien Peoples, Elijah Peoples, and Aaron Boyd, and five great-grandchildren: Calliope Godwin Kinge Macon, Deshawn and Angel

Albea, Zola Peoples one brother: Rev. Percy Smith (Estella), two sisters: Ann Mayberry and Vennie Jackson, aunt: Mattie Woolfork and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Caregivers: Her children! Special thanks to Martha Peoples (we love and adore you!)
