“ *So sorry for your loss Just saw today that he had died He was working at Jackson General in pharmacy I think when I started there in 1973 just out of nursing school. In those days the black employees were all one big family and looked out for each. He was a wonderful mentor

“ This is Eugene Robinson Jr, man the happy and loving greetings from my uncle will never be forgotten! Just as the greeting he and my father share (Hey Boey) our families know that is something they shared and it made us all smile. Rest in peace Unc! We love you.
