

Mrs. Effie Mae Cawthon Ross

November 14, 1928 - February 24, 2014

Every flower must fall to earth before the fruit can have its birth. So life must end and loved ones part before the heavenly life can start. Effie Mae Cawthon Ross, 85, passed away February 24 at the Jackson-Madison Co. General Hospital Hospice Unit. She was born November 14, 1928 to Frazier and Frances Stewart Cawthon.

She graduated from Chester County Training School and worked most of her career in the food service industry. She was affectionately known as “Ms. Effie” for many years at Freed-Hardeman’s Gano Cafeteria. She had a passion for cooking, sewing, quilting and gardening (both vegetable and flower) until her health failed her and she became a resident of Henderson Health & Rehabilitation.

Effie Mae is survived by two daughters, one son and their spouses, Bonita and Kenneth Croom, Renee and Michael Phelps and Steve and Heather Ross; her grandchildren, Alex Cawthon, Roma Croom, Damon and Vickie Trice, Jordan Phelps, Cameron Phelps, Olivia Ross and Alexa Ross; her great-grandchildren, Tyler Walker, Tyson Walker and Alexia Cawthon; a brother, F.C. Cawthon and a nephew and niece, Alfred & Melonie Cawthon of Las Vegas, Nev.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Marsha
"Dixie" Trice; a son-in-law, James L. Trice and a sister-in-law, Peggy Cawthon.

“ Letter of Condolence

If we could bring you back again ,for one more hour or one more day

We`d express all our unspoken love;

We`d have countless things to say

If we could bring you back again ,we`d say we treasured you ,and that your presence in our lives meant more than we ever knew.

Weeping may endure for the night but joy comes in the morning.
