“ Great Aunt Elcie was like a grandmother to me. On our trips to TN we were always on the run. My father, L.C. Cooper, would say, "we have to stop by Aunt Elcie's just for a minute." That minute would turn into hours as he and Aunt Elcie would laugh, joke, and share special memories. Then Aunt Elcie would say, "them chillin' need something to eat." She always had the best aromas coming from her kitchen. Fried pies, fried chicken, peas & okra, cornbread, who wouldn't look hungry? She was such a pleasure to be around, and always younger than her years. We are privileged to have a great big family of loving grandmothers, aunts, uncles, mothers, fathers, cousins, etc... Anyone who knows our family knows that that special love started so many years ago with great people like Aunt Elcie. I will never forget the special love & joy she brought to us. She will always be remembered as one of those special people in my life who gave to so many, but asked little in return. We miss you Aunt Elcie, but the love you gave will radiate forever!

“ My name is Esther Henley daughter-in-law of Mae Henley. When Ms. Elcie came to Mae's 90th birthday party She stole the lime light when everyone was so surprised when they heard Ms. Elcie was 100 years old. We were so proud to have her their with us and we are proud that she made it to 101. Her and Mr. Frye were wonderful people and I thank them for being to nice to my in-laws all the years they were neighbors. My prayers to the family on this sad occasion but happy that she is home.
