

Mrs. Emma Mae Fielder

February 19, 1931 - August 29, 2017

Emma May Fielder was born to the late Annie Lee Fowler and the late Cecil Fielder on February 19, 1931. She was the first born of two children in Humboldt, TN.

She attended Humboldt City Schools, where she later graduated and went on to become a Licensed Practical Nurse at Jackson Madison County General Hospital in Jackson, TN for 35 years, until she retired.

She fellowshiped at Lane Chapel C.M.E. Church for many years. Later, she continued her spiritual journey at Williams Chapel Baptist Church, until her health began to fail.

She was never married, nor did she have any children of her own. However, she played a big and special part in helping her nephews raise their kids and helping raise her god-son.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother, Cecil Fielder, Jr., and her nephew, Charles Turner.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her great niece, Samantha (Demetrius) Turner of Humboldt, TN; great nephew, Charles (Dynicka) Carpenter of Nashville, TN; a god-son, Steven Dotson of Humboldt, TN; 6 great- great nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
