

Mrs. Emma Jean Hicks Johnson

September 13, 1958 - August 3, 2012

Mrs. Emma Jean Hicks Jonson was born September 13, 1958 to the late Ms. Lyna Cole and

Mr. John Thomas Hicks Gause in Haywood County, Tennessee. Emma entered into eternal joy Friday, August 3, 2012, where she was surrounded by her loving family at her home.

Emma professed her hope in Christ at an early age and united with Bluff Creek Baptist Church and she later became a member of Deliverance House Of Prayer / Light of Life Ministries.

Emma was educated in Haywood and Madison County School System. Her nurturing spirit led her career in the medical field. She worked as a nurse for over twenty years and was preparing to further her education.

On June 27, 1992, Emma was united in holy matrimony with Timothy Lee Johnson, with whom she shared eight glorious years in a God filled marriage. Timothy and Emma truly loved each other until his passing.

She was preceded in death by her husband Timothy Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her warm and loving memory her three daughters: Terrineka (Robert) Brown, Chiquita (Savalas) Stewart and NeyaLonda (Marshall) Hollis. Five Grandchildren: Briana, JaNeya, Prince, Persaus and Abigail. A loving sister: Johnnie (Micheal) Douglas. A brother: John (Yolanda) Gauge. Three nephews: Micheal Douglas Jr., Garrick Douglas and John Gauge III. A niece Janesika Gause.
