

Ms. Geneva Ross

January 7, 1941 - March 14, 2023

Geneva was born on the seventh day of January in year nineteen forty-one. Her birth took place in Simpson County, Magee, Mississippi. She was the third born of five children from Mims Rankins and Martha Kemp. She attended grade school in Magee, Mississippi, and then attended high school in Chicago, Illinois.

She accepted Christ as her lord and savior at an early age and was a faithful member of Broadview Baptist Church in Broadview, Illinois, and later, Beech Springs Baptist Church in Henderson, Tennessee.

She had a successful career as a lab technician, retiring from Reliable Electric in 1996, at age 55. In 2011, a few years after her father passed, she moved to Henderson, TN, to live closer to her children.

She was fun-loving and loved interacting with people. In her spare time, she enjoyed dancing, singing, bowling, volleyball, softball, teaching scripture, agriculture, and spending time with her loved ones most of all.

Geneva was called home on the fourteenth day of March in year two-thousand twenty-three.

She was preceded in passing by both of her parents and three brothers: Odell Rankins, Carwell Rankins, and Mims Rankins Jr.

“ My auntie always had time for us; even though we were repeatedly dropped off "at our request" unannounced. My mom would tell our dad to take us out somewhere and when we all got in the car , he'd ask where we wanted to go. Our answer 99% of the time was "over Geneva house". She never seemed overwhelmed as she had 5 children of her own. Once we were there we didn't want to leave and always asked if we could spend the night; she always said yes. And to add to that she made the best sweet potato pies on earth. And of course we requested them and she never said no. I will always cherish the warm kind feelings I felt in her presence.

“ My Auntie G, also had a comeback, known to all for her dancing abilities. I can remember her teaching us how to dance like Tina Turner at a very young age. Throughout her life as far back as I can remember Auntie, she always made you laugh. Adrienne
