

Mrs. Georgia Louise Stanford

March 19, 1940 - February 27, 2025

Georgia Louise Watson Stanford, the daughter of the late Elizabeth Watson and Rufford Boswell was born March 19, 1940, in Lexington, Tennessee.

She was educated at Pleasant Hill School and graduated from Montgomery High School in 1958.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church. Her services in this church were many: Sr. Choir, Youth Choir Director, Church Clerk, and Missionary Board Mother. She faithfully worked with her husband maintaining the church cemetery.

She married her high school sweetheart, Joe Henry Stanford. They honored their vows and were married 64 years until her death. Four children were born to their union.

She was employed and retired after 31 years of service at Lexington Metal and Johnson Controls.

She truly loved life and her church. She loved to cook; and especially looked forward to preparing food for the church Homecoming, held annually on the 3rd Sunday in May.

She was a loving, loyal woman of God who firmly believed in the power of prayer and always taught her children to pray. Her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were always in her heart. “Granny” always made time for each of them – no matter what time of day or night.

She was preceded in death by her daughter in law, Katina Stanford.

Those left to cherish her legacy and memory includes: her devoted and loving husband, Joe Henry Stanford; loving and devoted children, daughters, Elizabetha (Gilbert) Howse of Nashville, Tennessee and Teresa (Cecil) Dabbs; sons, Kent Stanford of Seattle, Washington, Clarence Stanford and Victor Stanford both of Lexington, Tennessee, grandchildren, Whitney (Robert) Hurt III and LaNiya Howse both of Nashville, Tennessee Marcus Stanford, Austin (Savannah) Thomas, Victoria Stanford, Calvin Stanford, Tiffany Rice, Felicia Gatiln, Eva Sue Dabbs, Greg Dabbs, and a host of great grandchildren. Also left to cherish her memory is her loving and devoted sister, Jewel Forney, and a host of other relatives and friends.
