

Ms. Gladys Yarbrough

October 26, 1930 - July 27, 2023

Gladys E. Yarbrough was the daughter of the late John Yarbrough and Lula Mays Yarbrough. She was born October 26, 1932 in Madison County TN. She departed this life peacefully Thursday morning, July 27, 2023 at AHC Forest Cove Nursing Home at the age of 92.

She was educated in the Madison County School System. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined Bascom C.M.E. Church. She was a faithful member, serving as an active SWD Missionary and a Stewardess on the local, district and regional levels. She later joined Mother Liberty C.M.E. Church where she continued her faithful service to Christ. She was always supportive of her Church and Pastors.

She retired from Jackson-Madison County General Hospital with the Environmental Services Dept. and as a Patient Sitter.

She was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers: Willis Yarbrough, James Yarbrough and J.C. Yarbrough and two sisters: Louise Yarbrough-Hunt and Eula V. Yarbrough.

Gladys leaves to cherish her memory her daughter Charlene Estes (Daryl Sr.) Owens, two grandchildren: Daryl Jr. and Amanda Estes and one great-grandchild Tatum Anderson, all from Jackson, TN. She leaves one brother, Celester Yarbrough Sr. and three sisters: Buelah Mae Yarbrough, Ossie D. Yarbrough and Sarah Lee Yarbrough, all from Jackson TN. Three nieces: Mattie R. Yarbrough, Sarah Yarbrough, Regenia Jackson and four nephews: Bobby J. Yarbrough, Celester Yarbrough Jr., Tyrone Taylor, all from Jackson, TN and Willie James Yarbrough of Everette, Washington. A very close friend Rev. Grapple Donnell as a brother to the Yarbrough family. Her special cousin Rev. Paul Lacy with Bettye and Sonya Hunter, who helped care for her. A host of other friends and family.
