Goldie invited me to the 100 men in Black sponsored in Jackson! I went to her house to get dressed and she dressed me up in her Black Mink Coat, black gloves up to my elbows and Pretty Jewelry! Bam she said...
Then she said we going Over there looking Rich even tho we have no Money ...
“ me laughing “ Goldie said Look out Y’all!!

We danced with each other most of the night! Laughing and have fun.....

“ My heart is broken that my dear friend who I considered a sister is gone. There are not enough words to explain how much me and my family loved Goldie Ross. My kids still can't believe their Ms. Goldie is gone. God took another angel home to be with him and we shall rejoice. My prayers are for her family, especially her sons who I know were her life. May God comfort and keep them and the rest of her family.
