

Mrs. Helen D. Golden

July 20, 1943 - September 5, 2015

On a summer day, 20th of July in 1943, Helen Deloise Hollerway Golden was born in Somerville, Tennessee. She was the only child of her late mother Remeal Mabone.

At an early age she professed a belief and gave her life to Christ. She was baptized at Macon Baptist Church in Somerville, Tennessee under the leadership of Reverend P. H. Baker. She later became a member of Berean Baptist Church in Jackson, Tennessee. In December 2012, she joined Historic First Baptist Church in Jackson, Tennessee.

Helen began her education in the Fayette County School system. She was a homecoming queen during her junior year. She received a B. S. Degree in Education at Lane College and a Master of Science in Education from The University of Tennessee. Helen's career in education spanned over 30 years working in the Jackson Madison County School System. Her service to the community as a teacher, guidance counselor, cheerleader advisor and mentor was a profession she truly loved. Helen retired from the Madison County School system on July 31, 1996.

On June 2, 1967, Helen married Ernest Edward Golden. Over the years, they enjoyed taking cruises, traveling around European countries, and taking road trips throughout the western United States. Helen loved going to basketball, football games, listening to jazz and cooking.

On September 5, 2015 Helen Deloise Hollerway Golden departed this earthly life. She will be dearly missed by members of her family and friends, former students and acquaintances whose lives were made richer because of her.

Her memory will forever be cherished by her loving and devoted goddaughter, Sheri Burton; stepdaughter, Carmen (Robert) Starr; granddaughters, Courtney (Cordell) Davis and Whitney (Christopher) Davis; great grandson, Avery; aunt, Dorothy (Samuel) Booze, uncle, Algie Mabone; a host of cousins; and a dear friend of the family, Willie Long, Jr.
