

Ms. Henreda Yvonne Cheatham Jones

August 6, 1947 - January 9, 2017

On January 9, 2017, God in his infinite wisdom, deemed it best to call our beloved from her earthly home in Jackson, TN, to a place of tranquility and perennial joy.

Henreda Yvonne Cheatham Jones (Bom Bom) was born on August 8, 1947 to the late Johnny Wesley Cheatham and Alpha Lee Moore Cheatham.

She gave her life to Christ at an early age. Growing up, she attended Mt. Zion Baptist Church and later joined Light of Life Ministries. She was educated in the Madison County School System, where she was a 1965 graduate of Merry High School. After graduating, she continued her education at Lane College, where she received her B.S. Degree in Education. She served as secretary at West High School until she journeyed on to her teaching career. Her career allowed her to be a dedicated teacher in Dyer, Crockett and Madison Counties.

She loved children and gave her time to teaching at Lincoln and South Elementary School until she retired.

Henreda had a great sense of humor and was always in a joyful mood. She loved her family and talking to her sisters. Sandra became a vital asset to her and was there attending to her needs before she became ill until her passing.

In 1967, she met and married her sweetheart, Bobby Jones. To this union, one son was born, Max Lewis (Andrea) Jones, who will cherish the memories of his mother. She is also survived by her four sisters, Sandra (Roy Lee) Bonds, Carolyn Flagg and Johnnie Mae Cheatham, all of Jackson, TN and Faye Jones of Monroe, Michigan; six granddaughters, Alisha and Brenda Estes, Kiarra Jones, Jesssica Brooks, all of Nashville, TN and Kaylahn and Krystyn Jones of Madison, Wisconsin
