

Mr. J.W. White Jr.

September 24, 1955 - November 25, 2017

Mr. J.W White Jr. was born on September 24, 1955 in Madison County, Tennessee to Mr. J.W White Sr. and Lucinda White. He made his early transition on November 25, 2017 at Jackson Madison County General Hospital.

Mr. J.W White Jr. accepted Christ at an early age and later joined Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church. He attended public schools and worked many years as a carpenter. Mr. J.W White Jr. was united in holy matrimony to Mrs. Lovie White in Chester County on September 4, 1990. To this union four children was born.

Mr. J.W White Jr. excelled and exemplified the roles of a husband, father, son, grandfather, uncle and friend. He was a very hard worker and never wanted to just sit around. There was never a task that he didn't attempt to do. Some of his interest included roofing, remodeling houses and mechanical work. His knowledge and skills continued to advance throughout his lifetime. He was a man that gave everyone courage and hope reminding them of how precious life is. The work, love, friendship and support he gave to individuals will always be remembered. Mr. J.W White Jr. was called home early Saturday morning because he was needed in Heaven as a servant of God. He was preceded in death by his father Mr. J.W White Sr.

He also leaves to cherish his memories: his mother: Lucinda White; ten children: Montez Sinclair, Nicky Manning, Nicholas Sinclair, Quenterro White, Karen Bradford (Jonathan), Keshia Bond, Antwan White, Trevecca Hicks, Daneisha Hicks and Josh Croom; two sisters: Marge Cole and Carolyn Johnson (John); five brothers: Oscar Polk (Dixie), Ray Murphy (Marlene), James Murphy, Rocky White and Willie Polk; one aunt: Lucy Fuller; 17 grandchildren, two great grandchildren, five sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
