“ To the March Family... James was a friend of mine. He was and still IS my brother in Christ. We worked together at Comcast. In my position there, there were many challenges and obstacles, and yet James was my encourager and cheerleader. He nicknames me Moses :) He loved my poundcake :) When I was ill, he brought my family a full course dinner - he didn't have to do it in spite of his challenges, but that's who he was. Your son, brother, nephew and beloved family member was an inspiration to many, and I'll never forget the praise dances we did together when I would visit him at home. I will keep all of his texts on my phone as they made me laugh, cry and inspired me. I will miss my friend in the physical, but his impact on my life and his friendship will always be with me. Be encouraged family, stay strong, James is cracking folks up in heaven! God bless you all, Tracy Brown (former Sr. HR Manager, Comcast)
