

Mr. James "Junebug" Reeves Jr.

February 7, 1957 - October 4, 2021

James Ervin "Junebug" Reeves, Jr. was born on February 7, 1957, in Jackson, Tennessee to the late James Ervin Reeves, Sr. and Lue Callie Deberry. He departed this life on October 4, 2021.

He attended the public schools in Jackson, Tennessee. In the mid 1970's He was employed with Kelly Foods of Jackson for over ten years. He was recently employed as an custodian for the Madison County Juvenile Court for over twenty years.

Most of all his hobbies were repairing cars, he would work on them from sun up to sundown. He will also transport people back and forth to work. He was a people person, if you ask him to do something he would do it. He loved helping people and would go beyond measures to help.

He was preceded in death by his brother: David Reeves; three step-children: Danille Bonds, Dysheca McClean and Tommy Lee Goff.

He leaves to cherish his memory three brothers: Daniel Lee (Martha) Reeves, James Lawrence Reeves and Edward Lewis Manley; two sisters: Callie Mae Butler and Joyce Ann Collins; four step-children: Lamont Park, Adrienna Park, Charles Bradford and Curtis McClean; a special niece: Chiquitta Shante Reeves; a special friend: Martha Carter and a host of nieces, nephews, stepgrandchildren, and cousins.

“ As a friend, James Reeves was one of the nicest and sweetest people that I have ever know!!!

As my employee for many years, James was always kind, cooperative and always eager to help anyone. He was an integral and very important part of our team at Madison County Juvenile Court. He was truly loved by everyone!!!
