

Ms. Jasmine Nicole Bond & Little Messiah Bond

December 22, 1991 - July 28, 2022

Jasmine Nicole Bond, daughter of Tacia Yvette Bond Cobb and James Alvin Cobb, was born on December 22, 1991, in Jackson, TN. She and her unborn infant, Messiah Bond, entered eternal rest on July 28, 2022

At an early age and during her teen years, Jasmine attended Straight-Way Apostolic Faith Church and Greater St. Luke Church. Jasmine participated in a dance group, Ambassador of Praise, while attending Greater St. Luke Church. Jasmine was very talented and won a writing contest.

She enjoyed and participated in pageants including the debutante ball. She won a local pageant as well. Jasmine attended Northside High School and received her diploma from Job Corps. Jasmine worked caring for others as a nurse aide.

Jasmine loved her daughter, son, and unborn infant. She was so proud of them and shared countless hours with them at Muse Park. She loved her family, and her second family, Glenda Pugh and family. Jasmine enjoyed her talks with her grandfather, Edward Bond, Sr. Being one of the oldest cousins, she was the devoted babysitter.

She is remembered as a helper, loving music, movies, family, friends and Sponge Bob. She always spoke her mind and will be remembered as keeping everyone on their toes. Her beauty and smile will never be forgotten.

Jasmine was preceded in death by her sister, Natasha Rashae Bond, grandmother, Barbara Rogers Bond, and a dear great aunt, Shirline Transou.

Jasmine's life and memories will be cherished by her two children: daughter, Ta'Zanna LaShaye' Bond, and son, Brandon Jamal Bond; brother: Dontavious "Bud" Bond; parents; grandparents: Edward and Mary Bond; aunts: Tonya Bond, Sonya (Chet) Reid, and Lakiesha (Harvey Jr) Holmes; uncles: Eric Bond, Edward Bond Jr. and Martavious Bond; cousins: Veronica Huntspon, Carlyle Huntspon, Terria Massengill and Calvin Bartlett; a special friend: Marilyn Rucker, and a host of other family and friends.
