

Mr. J.C. "Jake" Hodges

April 11, 1941 - April 27, 2012

Mr. J.C. Hodges was born on April 11, 1941 in Jackson, Tennessee, as the second child to the late Pettis and Sadie Mae Ross Hodge

As much as he was loved by all, J.C. was called home by God on Friday, April 27, 2012. We will comfort ourselves with memories and thank God for having allowed us to know such a father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend.

J.C. accepted Christ as his Saviour at an early age and became a member of Walnut Grove Baptist Church in Jackson, Tenn. He remained a faithful member until his passing. J.C. graduated from West High School in 1958. He attended college at Tennessee State University before being drafted into the U.S. Army, where he served for 4 years. After returning home, he was employed by Milan Arsenal for 10 years. After leaving Milan Arsenal, he spent the bulk of his professional life employed as a supervisor at Owens Corning Fiberglass in the Jackson, Tennessee and Anderson, South Carolina locations. He continually exhibited a spirit of love, gentleness, and dedication as a leader, and will always be remembered as a "gentle giant" to all who worked with him.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Minnie Hodges Peoples and Patsy Hodges Dockery, and one brother, Eddie C. Hodges. J.C. was the ultimate family man who was dedicated and loyal to all, and was loved dearly. He will be greatly missed, but he will live on in their hearts.

He leaves to cherish his memory: four loving children, Angela Hodges Brown (Isiah) of Memphis, Tennessee, James Hodges, Anthony Hodges (Judy) and Kenneth Hodges, all of Jackson, Tennessee; one sister, Josephine Mackey of Jackson, Tennessee; one brother, James Roger Bailey (Jeannie) of Columbus, Mississippi; twelve grandchildren, Randall, Jarvis, Chiquilla, LaShonda, Charissa, Kenndra, Tanisha, Devonte, DeAndre, Ty'rik, Dallas, and KaDajah; two great-grandchildren, Ke'lyn and Ka'leigha, a host of nieces and nephews he helped in rearing, along with cousins and friends.
