

Mr. Jeffrey Lawrence Braden

April 8, 1980 - September 21, 2021

Jeffrey Lawrence Braden was born April 8, 1980, in Memphis, Tennessee the son of Joyce Wade Braden and Michael Lawrence Braden.

He departed this life Tuesday, September 21, 2021, in Marietta, Georgia at the age of 41.

Jeffrey graduated from Bob Jones High School in 1998. He attended Alabama A&M University and graduated from Savannah College of Art & Design in 2005.

He enjoyed investing in the Stock Market with The I.M. Academy Educators, Wrestling at World Wrestling Alliance and Martial Arts. He also was passionate about attending and instructing at Burwell's Martial Arts.

Jeff worked as a Business Integrator at DK Lippy Construction Company in Tucker, GA. He reported directly to the CEO and was the primary point of contact for all conversion-related activities, updates, issues, risks and outstanding questions. Jeff worked diligently in customer relations management, social media marketing, graphic design, branding, and light information technology troubleshooting in order to integrate new processes and procedures into the preexisting business operations. Mainly responsible for the overall lead generation business platform, his successful coordination with Project Managers ensured timely responses to customer inquiries which was critical in reducing response time and keeping projects moving forward from inception to completion.

Those left to cherish his memories: parents, Joyce Wade Braden of Madison, Al, Michael Lawrence Braden of Providence, RI, brothers, Elgin A. Braden of Savannah, GA, Kyle A. Braden, Aaron M.
