“ Unc you are truly missed. Your comebacks from what someone is saying were hilarious and you making sure to have the last word..lol!

Today is the last day we will see you in the physical form but you will always live on in our hearts, minds, body and spirits. You always mentioned you were coming back to see us in Texas. Well you never made it but I want to thank you for coming to our wedding and all the laughter.

These pictures were from the week of our wedding! It was our first time meeting, but I knew within moments that my hands would be full with you. You and your nephews are so much alike...especially Chris! We love you! You're pain-free now. Rest on Unc!
