

Mr. Johnny Lee Hullum

July 19, 1946 - May 20, 2023

On July 19, 1946, John Boy began his journey, born to a little woman by the name of Lula in Jackson TN.. He attended Claybrook and Tri Community Elementary Schools and graduated from East High in 1964.

Who was our John Boy? He was an artist. He was a Vietnam veteran. He loved dealing with stray cats, stray dogs, anything that was needy, he was there for it. He didn't even want you to kill a roach, he would say they want to live too.

He was mild mannered but once irritated his words were "back up off me". He was a hoarder; he had a purpose for everything. He could say words that could make your hair stand up when he was angry, but he would turn right around and do anything for you as if nothing just happened. He didn't carry or hold grudges. He accepted people, even those who looked down upon him, at face value. He didn't have money, wealth or fame; but he had just enough by the grace of God and family he made it.

He was married to Mary Ann Cannon. He was preceded in death by his brothers: Walter Curtain, Leroy Curtain and Larry Gene Curtain.

He was a father of two daughters: Faye Ware and Demetris Burrell; stepson: Roy Cannon; he was a grandpa, had grandchildren and great grandchildren;

he was a companion and friend, over 30 years with Likithia Taylor who stood with him through thick and thin and was his caregiver; he had brothers named: Charles Curtain, Kinley Hullom, and Michael Curtain; he had sisters named Martha Merriweather, Mary Fuller, and Marva Mosley; he had a host of nephews, nieces, and some friends, especially Joe Mays, and some acquaintances.
