

Mr. Korteze Taye'vion Bond

October 18, 2003 - August 18, 2024

Korteze Bond was born on October 18, 2003, in Jackson, Tennessee to Katrina Bond and Kentae Pirtle.

He was a devoted son, brother, and friend, who enjoyed being around family, friends and helping others. His heart was bigger than his body. As a youth he played football for Mercer Brothers Funeral Home as a runner back and won the championship.

As he entered adulthood he worked in the production field.

He was preceded in death by his brother: Kontravis Ta'varis Bond; grandparents: Robert Nolen Bond, Sr., Helen Reid and Parker Reid.

Even though his journey of life was cut short he leaves behind his parents, mother: Katrina Bond and father: Kentae Pirtle, siblings: Kornelius Bond, Kenterius Pirtle, and Makhyria Pirtle and a very special friend Anadia Clark; grandparents: Alma (Charlie) Moffitt and a host of other relatives and friends. His presence, smile and laugh will always be cherished in our memory and hearts.
