“ I've known Miss Hazel for many years. Having gone to school with her Two sons plus church with her and her children as well as her grandchildren. She had an amazing voice she sang with my late mother Shirley Rayner Jones Moore. I could often think of her voice meaning Mrs Hazel singing holy Jesus how I love calling his name it touched my soul every time she seen that song and she will be greatly missed she is singing in that HEAVENLY CHOIR with everyone she sang with from EJCOC !! YOU ALL HAVE MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY DURING THIS TIME OF LOSS THERE IS NO GREATER LOSS LIKE A MOTHER

“ This warrior carried me through such dark times. Her example: when faith is all you have but more than you need. The voice of an angel. She was like a 2nd mom to me. Rest well from your labors, Grandma Hazel. We will always love you.

“ Aunt Hazel I will remember your beautiful voice in song. You and Aunt Anna sang a Song entitled (I Made A Promise To The Lord), my Mother would play that little 45 for us listen to it. Now you and Aunt Anna are singing in that Angelic Choir. Your work is done down here. Rest my Dear Aunt in Gods Loving Arms.
