“ *As a child, you treated me as one of your own, I could not wait til school was out each summer, to come and visit. When I became an adult, there was nothing I wouldn't do for you. I remember those shopping trips each summer, letting you have the run of the store, yet you wanted to be conservative. I know that you are in a better place, although I miss you, God makes no mistakes. To be absent from the body, is to be present with The Lord, no more pain. Rest on now momma, you'll be missed,
