

Mr. Lonnie L. Mackey

May 11, 1939 - May 9, 2024

Lonnie L. Mackey was born May 11, 1939 in Medon, Tennessee to Jim and Mabel Mackey. He departed this life on May 9, 2024, at the age of 84.

He attended the public schools of Madison County. He worked faithfully at Port- Cable which later became Black and Deck for 37 years. Even though he did factory work, his passion was carpentry. He built and remodeled for many people in Jackson and surrounding counties.

He faithfully attended Marshall Chapel Church for many years until his death. He worked diligently in the church both spiritually and naturally. He served faithfully on the deacon board and was a part of the brotherhood.

He loved hunting, horseback riding, and riding his ATM. He would often ride his little great nieces and nephew on the ATM. He was a fun-loving man. Lonnie was hilarious and a character in his own right! He had many stories to tell which kept us laughing. His favorite phrase was "Tell me what you know good?" and really expected you to tell him something good!

He was united in holy matrimony to Mattie Sue Reaves Mackey on June 1, 1963.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jim Mackey, and Mabel Blackwell

Mackey, four brothers, Joe Louis, Alfred, Ennis, and Albert Mackey, three sisters, Lillian Gibbs, Alleen Turner, and Carrie Lee Agins.

Lonnie leaves to cherish his memories a dear and devoted wife, Mattie Sue Reaves Mackey, three brothers-in-law, Thomas (Mary), James, and Fred Reaves, three sisters-in-law, Mary March, Brenda Reaves, and Kathy Willis, a host of special nieces and nephews, a devoted church and many, many, friends and family!
