

Mrs. Lovie Vanburen Blackmon

May 16, 1940 - June 14, 2024

Ms. Lovie Van Buren Blackmon was born on May 16, 1940 to Fannie Mae and Willie Van Buren in Mercer, TN as the youngest of seventeen children.

She was an advocate for education and completed her studies at West High School in Denmark, TN. Upon completion of her high school studies, she received an offer for a full-ride to Tennessee A&I, better known as Tennessee State University.

In 1958, she moved to Jackson, TN to join her sister Gracie Mae Van Buren where she later met her partner Samuel Earl Blackmon, Sr. The two married and raised four children, Samuel Earl Blackmon, Jr. (deceased), Caroline Denise Blackmon Davis (G. Wayne), Gregory Alexis Blackmon (Tiffany) and Michael Lynn Blackmon.

Miss Lovie loved The Lord and was an active member of Macedonia Baptist Church where she proudly served on the Usher Board.

She is survived by her three children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Sean Blackmon, (Zyiona), Caroline Davis, (Briar, Chris, & Baz), Gregory Blackmon, (Alexis, Chinedu, Abbee, Elior, Makia, Kaiden), Michael Blackmon, (Patrice, Troy, Samaya, Zoey, Michael Jr., Ariel, Zevyn), other family members and plenty of friends turned family members.

“ Dear Family and friends of Aunt Lovie,
We will miss seeing and visiting her in Jackson, and having her come visit us and go to lunch. Beautiful lady, beautiful smile. Be strong for each other and continue loving each other. May your fondest memories comfort and keep you forever.
Love you and Live on!
The entire Guinn Family (Lucious, Nathaniel, Evelyn and Chyral)
