

Mr. Mack Savage

December 28, 1940 - July 15, 2023

Brother Mack Savage was born December 28, 1940, in Madison County to the late McKinley and Anna Ruth Savage.

His christian journey started at a very young age and was reflected in the life he led. He received his education in the Jackson-Madison County Public School System where he later went on to work as a maintenance technician and retired after 30 years.

He served faithfully on the Deacon Board and as chairman at the Center Point Baptist Church. He took care of the lawn, banking, and other tasks around the church.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 57 years: Mary Savage; son: Bobby Merriweather; sisters: Dorothy Mae Pearson and Gracie Mae Bray; and brother: Edward Savage.

He leaves to cherish his memories two sons: Gregory Savage, and Rodney (Margaret) Savage; grandchildren: Brian Merriweather, Cyerrah Savage, India Savage, Dustin Jackson and Alexis Cooley; great-grandchildren: Braylon Merriweather, Caison Caldwell and Kastin Jackson; brother: Johnny Ray Savage; sisters-in-law: Addie B. Lawhorn, Clarice Perkins, Nancy (Frank) Allen, Manie Doris; brothers-in-law: Robert G. (Aquilla) Perkins; very special friends: Amy and Eden Smith; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I worked with Mack at the Beare Company in Jackson and Humboldt for about 15 years. Mack was always upbeat and had the kind of personality that made him a pleasure to be around. Edward and Johnny Ray worked there also. Rest in peace Mack!

“ Uncle Mack, what I wouldn't give to see you sit on the deacon board and hear you lead devotion. But I know you are finally at rest and peace. Thank you for always reminding us to get right now so we can go home with Jesus. I know Aunt Mary, Mama Anna, Papa Dukes, Ant Dorothy Mae, and my grandma Gracie welcomed you with open arms. Job well done and rest well!
