

Ms. Mamie Elizabeth Hunt

January 23, 1928 - February 3, 2022

Mamie Elizabeth Hunt was born on January 23, 1928, to the late Jacob Bob Hunt and Dominion Mahalia Hill Hunt. She departed this life on February 3, 2022.

At an early age she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and joined Mt. Pleasant C.M.E. Church in Madison County, Tennessee. She worked alongside her siblings on the family farm where they had an orchard, grew corn, cotton, sorghum, vegetables and raised animals.

She left Madison County and moved to St. Louis, Missouri in her adulthood. She lived and worked in St. Louis for many years. She also moved to Denver, Colorado to be with her son: the late Willie James Galloway and his family. She returned to Tennessee to live in Jackson and bought herself a home.

She enjoyed collecting dishes and watching westerns. She hosted "Mini" family reunions in between the large Hunt Family Reunions from time to time.

She often called and stayed in contact with her siblings and cousin Joe Davis. She joined and enjoyed Dr. J.A. Boles Depot Ministry, under the leadership of Rev. Jerry Howard.

She was preceded in death by her parents, son, and siblings: Alvester Hunt,

Sylvester Hunt, Lillian Cole, Jacob Hunt, Jr., Robbie Hunt, Norma Jean Adams and John D. Hunt.

She is survived by her siblings: Dorothy Price, Jessie Bonds and William (Janie) Hunt; nine grandchildren; twenty-seven great-grandchildren; and nine great-great grandchildren; close cousin: Joe Davis and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Aunt Mamie used to stay a rock's throw from Whitehall elementary school where my daughter was attending. She used to stand on her porch and watch for her. My daughter love staying with her instead of coming with me to the daycare.
