

Mrs. Mandy Nichols

September 1, 1927 - October 29, 2022

Mandy Nichols was born on September 1, 1925 in Union City, Tennessee. She was the youngest of three children born to the late William and Jessie Mae Enlow. She was called home, by the grace of god, on October 29, 2022.

In the earlier years of her life, she was a faithful member of Home Baptist Church. While attending Home Baptist church she raised three sons and one daughter. Her four children joined the church and became faithful servants of the lord along side of their mother.

She also joined the Usher Board and worked along side her youngest son and daughter. All served proudly as Ushers.

In later years, Mandy returned to and became a member of Parkers Chapel C.M.E. Church. She was known for her work in the kitchen of the church and cooking various dishes when needed. She also helped with the upkeep of the cemetery. When her health begin to fail she enjoyed the services via telephone. She enjoyed being a part of the services although she was not able to attend in person.

She was a faithful servant of the lord for most of her life. She was a proud member of Parkers Chapel until her passing.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sons: Ruben Hurbert Martin, Herbert

Martin and Franklan Martin; two grandchildren: Johnathan Anthony Martin and Amber Michelle Martin. Those closest to the family, Ms. Alysia Martin, Mrs. Patricia Martin, Ms. Annette Beard, and Mr. Craig English. many members of the MacLin, Donaldson, Lee, Stamp, and Scott families. A host of other family members and many friends.
