“ This is a very hard transition for me to accept. But I'm believing in God to continue to give us strength through this extremely hard time. My Grandmother was a well loved wonderful woman by my family and she will be sorely missed. But I promise with everything that is within me, with God on my side I will always do what would make her proud of me. The church that I Pastor, where she was the former First Lady will continue to grow. As I honor her memory with always doing God's will. My Grandfather, her husband will continue to be loved, respected and honored. My Mother, her daughter will continue to be loved, respected, and honored. My children, her Great-Grandchildren will always be taught righteousness and the values that you've instilled in me. I'll continue to be the best Son, Brother, Father, Husband, Pastor, and Grandson that I can be. And from time to time I'll order a salad with no lettuce. Because 'everybody's lettuce ain't clean'!! Lol
