

Ms. Maurine Davis Woodson

August 9, 1939 - January 9, 2022

Maurine Davis-Woodson was born on August 9, 1939, in Chester County, Tennessee to the late C. L. Davis and Vassie Ann Trice Davis. On Sunday, January 9, 2022, God saw fit to call her to his place of rest.

She was brought up in Lucyville Church of Christ in Henderson, Tennessee where she confessed Christ at an early age.

She attended Chester County High School and later moved to Chicago, Illinois where she held various roles in children's education, social work, civil rights, and politics. She was a strong advocate for prayer for which she lived, taught, and encouraged others to do daily. Her favorite hobbies included cooking, baking, reading, and cultivating plants.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her sister, Marilyn Ann Davis; and two brothers: Thomas C. Davis and Clyde L. Davis.

She leaves to cherish her memory four children: Tronna (John) Harris, Valerie (Charles) Johnkin, Jeffrey Woodson, and Javae Fox; brothers: George (Irma) Davis and Harry (Sheila) Davis; sisters: Annie (Grady) Carter and Peggy (Talmadge) Surratt; twelve grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

“ Grandma, I love you, you will forever hold that special place in my heart! You lived a long, beautiful life, and I am grateful that God blessed me to have been apart of it! Grandma, I will forever cherish our memories, laughs, texts, your encouraging facebook posts, (when you got a Facebook, you shocked the world, lol) your big hugs & kisses, and your everlasting love❤️ Thank you for all the prayers, and all the support throughout the years. I will love you forever, and ever.
