

Mrs. Maxine Gertie B. Chandler Cole McDearman

August 28, 1920 - April 5, 2013

Maxine Gertie B. Chandler Cole McDearman was born August 28, 1920 to the late Eld. Walter James Chandler and Mary Ella Cobb Chandler. She departed this earthly life Friday, April 5, 2013 at Humboldt Manor in Humboldt, Tennessee.

One sister, Argatha McClellan and three brothers, Thomas, Robert Earl and Joe Melvin and a stepmother, Mary Woods Chandler preceded her in death.

She was a longtime resident of Crockett County and was a pillar in the community. She worked as a domestic engineer for over over twenty-five years and later worked at Pictsweet for twenty-five years until she retired.

Mother McDeannan accepted Christ at an early age. Being a preacher's daughter she understood early in life the meaning of doing the will of the Lord and preparing to meet Him. She was a devoted member of St. Luke Church of God in Christ for her entire life where she served as a Sunday School teacher, Usher, Bible Band secretary and Mothers Board.

Mother Maxine was united in holy matrimony to Mr. LeRoy Cole and to this union four children were born: Dorothy, Jimmy Lee, Mary Jane and Gertie. Nine years after LeRoy's death, she married William McDearman and to this union one daughter, Alice, was born.

Mother Maxine leaves to cherish her life her two daughters, Gertie B. Johnson (Eld. William) of Memphis, TN., Alice Faye McDearman of Bells, TN. (Dorothy Mae Roberson, Jimmy Lee Cole, Sr. and Mary Jane Cole preceded her in death). Two sisters, Lou Alice McClain of Toledo, Ohio and Nina Faye Johnson of Columbus, Ohio. Two brothers, Charles (Helen) and Earl of Toledo, Ohio. Eleven grandchildren; Seventeen great-grandchildren; Nine great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the Family: I am so sorry for your loss. I have known and loved Sis Mac all my life. She was my first sunday school teacher and her smile was the first thing I saw when I got to church every sunday morning when I was little girl. Knowing her was a blessing to my mother and I will never forget the foundation she help start in my life. God Bless Sister Maxine.
